3. PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL

- 3.1. P-uma is a licensed financial services provider.
- 3.2. This manual is intended to foster a culture of transparency and accountability by P-uma, by giving effect to the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect their rights.
- 3.3. In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in terms of the Act in order for them to exercise their rights in relation to public and private bodies.
- 3.4. Section 9 of the Act however recognises that such right to access to information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to –
- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
 - Commercial confidentiality; and

- Effective, efficient and good governance;

and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

4. GUIDE ON HOW TO USE PAIA AND HOW TO OBTAIN ACCESS TO THE GUIDE

4.1. The Regulator has, in terms of section 10(1) of the Act, made available the Guide on how to use the Act, in an easily comprehensible form and manner, as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in the Act and POPIA.

4.2. The Guide is available from the Regulator in each of the official languages and in braille.

4.3. The aforesaid Guide contains the description of-

5. WHO MAY REQUEST INFORMATION IN TERMS OF THE ACT

5.1. Any person who requires information for the exercise or protection of any rights, may request information from a private body. Section 50 of the Act states that –

5.1.1. A requester must be given access to any record of a private body if –

- a) that record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights;
- b) that person complies with the procedural requirements in this Act relating to a request for access to that record; and
- c) access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of this Part.

5.2. A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of P-uma. There are two types of requesters –

5.2.1. Personal Requester

Personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester. P-uma will voluntarily provide the requested information or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information.

The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested may be charged.

5.2.2. Other Requester

This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties. However, P-uma is not obliged to voluntarily grant access. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements for access in terms of the Act, including the payment of a request and access fee.

6. PROCEDURES FOR OBTAINING ACCESS

6.1. Key Contact Details for Access to Information

6.1.1. Any person who wishes to request any information from P-uma with the object of protecting or exercising a right may contact the information officer or deputy information officers:

- a) Information Officer: Chanelle Fischer
- b) Deputy Information Officer: Cheryl Allen

6.1.2. The contact details for the Information officer and deputy information are set out below:

- Telephone: (021)403 9167
- Email Address: info@p-uma.co.za
- Website: www.pumainsurance.co.za

6.1.3. P-uma Head Office:

- Postal Address: 29th Floor
The Box
9 Lower Burg Street
Cape Town
8000
- Physical Address: 29th Floor
The Box
9 Lower Burg Street
Cape Town

6.2. Prescribed Access Form

6.2.1. In terms of section 53 of the Act, a request for access to a record of P-uma must be made in the prescribed form (attached hereto as Annexure 1) to P-uma at the address or electronic mail address given above. The form requires the requestor to provide the following information:

- a) sufficient information to enable the information officer to identify the requestor;
- b) sufficient information to enable the information officer to identify the record(s) requested;
- c) the form of access required;
- d) the requestor's postal address, email address, or fax number;
- e) identification of the right sought to be exercised or protected;
- f) an explanation on why the record is required to exercise or protect that right;
- g) the manner in which the requestor wishes to be informed of the decision on the request, if in a manner in addition to written notification; and
- h) if the request is made on behalf of a person, the submission of proof of the capacity in which the requestor makes the request, to the satisfaction of the information officer.

6.2.2. P-uma will process the request within 30 days, unless the requestor has stated special reasons which would satisfy the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time period is not to be complied with.

- 6.2.3. The requester shall be informed whether access has been granted or denied in writing.
- 6.2.4. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he must state the manner and the particulars so required.
- 6.2.5. If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.
- 6.2.6. The requester must pay the prescribed fee before any further processing can take place.
- 6.2.7. Requestors should note that all of the information as listed above should be provided, failing which the process will be delayed while the private body requests such additional information. The prescribed time periods will not commence until all pertinent information has been furnished to the private body by the requestor.
- 6.2.8. Records held by P-uma may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.

6.3. Prescribed Fees

6.3.1. Payment of fees is regulated in terms of section 54 of the Act. The Regulations to the Act provide for two types of fees –

a) Request Fee

This is a non-refundable administration fee paid by all requestors with the exclusion of personal requestors. It is paid before the request is considered.

b) Access Fee

This is paid by all requestors only when access is granted. This fee is intended to reimburse the private body for the costs involved in searching for a record and preparing it for delivery to the requestor.

6.3.2. The information officer must give written notice to a requestor other than a personal requestor of the request fee and amount to be paid before the request may be further processed.

6.3.3. If in the information officer's opinion the search for a record, or preparation of the record for disclosure will require more than the prescribed hours, the information officer may require the requestor to pay a deposit, not being more than one third of the access fee that would be payable if the request is granted. If the request is declined, the deposit must be repaid to the requestor.

6.3.4. The notice given by the information officer must advise the requestor that s/he has a right to apply to court against the payment of the request fee or deposit, and also advise of the procedure of the application.

6.3.5. The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated in Annexure 2, attached hereto.

6.3.6. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

8. INFORMATION REQUESTED ABOUT A THIRD PARTY

- 8.1. P-uma may possess records pertaining to other parties, including without limitation, contractors, suppliers, subsidiary/holding/sister companies, joint venture companies, service providers. Alternatively, such other parties may possess records which can be said to belong to P-uma. The following records fall under this category -
- 8.1.1. Personnel, customer or private body records which are held by another party as opposed to being held by P-uma; and
- 8.1.2. Records held by P-uma pertaining to other parties, including without limitation financial records, correspondence, contractual records, records provided by the other party, and records third parties have provided about the contractors / suppliers.
- 8.2. Section 71 of the Act makes provision for a request for information or records about a third party.
- 8.3. In considering such a request, P-uma will adhere to the provisions of sections 71 to 74 of the Act.
- 8.4. The attention of the requester is drawn to the provisions of Chapter 5, Part 3 of the Act in terms of which P-uma is obliged, in certain circumstances, to advise third parties of requests lodged in respect of information applicable to or concerning such third parties. In addition, the provisions of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of the Act entitle third parties to dispute the decisions of the head or the request liaison officer by referring the matter to the High Court.
- 8.5. If the request is for a record pertaining to a third party, the information officer must take all reasonable steps to inform that third party of the request. This must be done within 21 days of receipt of the request. The manner in which this is done must be in the fastest means reasonably possible, but if orally, the information officer must thereafter give the third party a written confirmation of the notification. The third party may within 21 days thereafter either make representation to the private body as to why the request should be refused, alternatively grant written consent to the disclosure of the record. The third party must be advised of the decision taken by the information officer on whether to grant or decline the request and must also be advised of his/her/its right to appeal against the decision by way of application to court within 30 days after the notice.

9. DECISION-MAKING PROCESS

- 9.1. In terms of Section 55, the information officer will take all reasonable steps to find a record that has been requested. If the record cannot be found or does not exist, the information officer must notify the requestor by way of affidavit or affirmation that it is not possible to give access to the record. This is deemed to be a refusal of the request. If, however, the record is later found, the requestor must be given access if the request would otherwise have been granted.
- 9.2. Section 56 provides that the information officer must within 30 days of receipt of a correctly completed request notify the requestor of the decision as to whether or not to grant the request. If the request is –
- 9.2.1. Granted: the notification must state the applicable access fee required to be paid, together with the procedure to be followed should the requestor wish to apply to court against such fee, and the form in which access will be given.
- 9.2.2. Declined: the notification must include adequate reasons for the decision, together with the relevant provisions of the Act relied upon and provide the procedure to be followed should the requestor wish to apply to court against the decision.

- 9.3. The information officer may extend the period of 30 days by a further period not exceeding 30 days if –
- 9.3.1. the request is for a large number of records or requires a search through a large number of records and, without an extension, this search would interfere with the normal activities of the body concerned;
 - 9.3.2. the request requires a search for records located in a different office of the private body not situated in the same city;
 - 9.3.3. consultation between divisions of the private body, or with another private body is required; or
 - 9.3.4. the requestor consents to the extension.
- 9.4. The requestor must be notified within the initial 30-day period in writing of the extension, together with reasons therefor, and the procedure involved should the requestor wish to apply to court against the extension.
- 9.5. The information officer's failure to respond to the requestor within the 30-day period constitutes a deemed refusal of the request.
- 9.6. Section 59 provides that the information officer may sever a record and grant access only to that portion which the law does not prohibit access to.
- 9.7. If access is granted, access must be given in the form that is reasonably required by the requestor, or if the requestor has not identified a preference, in a form reasonably determined by the information officer.

10. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF A REQUEST

- 10.1. Notwithstanding compliance with section 50, the request may be declined in accordance with one of the prescribed grounds in terms of the Act, namely –
- 10.1.1. Section 63 of the Act prohibits the unreasonable disclosure of the personal information of natural person to requestors. This includes the personal information of deceased persons. However, Section 63(2) does provide exceptions to this.
 - 10.1.2. Section 64 states that a request must be refused if it relates to records containing information pertaining to –
 - 10.1.2.1. trade secrets;
 - 10.1.2.2. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information where disclosure would be likely to cause harm to the commercial or financial interests of that party; or
 - 10.1.2.3. information supplied in confidence by a party, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to put the party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the party in commercial competition.
 - 10.1.3. The information must, however, be released if it pertains to the results of product or environmental testing, the disclosure of which would reveal a serious public safety or environmental risk.

- 10.1.4. Section 65 prohibits disclosure of information if such disclosure would constitute a breach of any duty of confidentiality owed to a party in terms of an agreement.
- 10.1.5. In terms of section 66, a private body must refuse a request for access to a record of the body if disclosure could reasonably be expected to –
 - 10.1.5.1. endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;
 - 10.1.5.2. prejudice or impair the security of a building, structure or system, including but not limited to a computer or communication system, means of transport or any other property
 - 10.1.5.3. The private body may also refuse a request for access to information which would prejudice methods, systems, plans or procedures for the protection of an individual in accordance with a witness protection scheme or safety of the public.
- 10.1.6. Section 67 mandates the refusal of a request if the record is privileged from production in legal proceedings, unless the person entitled to the privilege has waived the privilege.
- 10.1.7. Section 68 pertains to records containing information about the private body itself and unlike the other provisions pertaining to decline of a request, is not mandatory, but rather discretionary. P-uma may refuse access to a record if the record -
 - 10.1.7.1. contains trade secrets of P-uma;
 - 10.1.7.2. contains financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, the disclosure of which would be likely to cause harm to the commercial or financial interests of P-uma;
 - 10.1.7.3. contains information which, if disclosed, could reasonably be expected to put the private body at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations, or prejudice P-uma in commercial competition; or
 - 10.1.7.4. consists of a computer program owned by P-uma.
- 10.1.8. Notwithstanding the above, the information must be released if it pertains to the results of product or environmental testing, the disclosure of which would reveal a serious public safety or environmental risk.
- 10.1.9. Section 69 prohibits the disclosure of information about research where disclosure is likely to expose the party, the person conducting the research on behalf of the party, or the subject matter of the research to serious disadvantage. Disclosure is discretionary if such research pertains to P-uma itself.
- 10.1.10. Notwithstanding any of the above-mentioned provisions, section 70 provides that a record must be disclosed if its disclosure would -
 - 10.1.10.1. reveal evidence of a substantial contravention of or failure to comply with the law, imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk; and
 - 10.1.10.2. if the public interest in the disclosure clearly outweighs the harm.

11. REMEDIES AVAILABLE WHEN RENASA REFUSES A REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

11.1. Internal Remedies

11.1.1. P-uma does not have internal appeal procedures. As such, the decision made by the Information Officer is final, and requestors will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

11.2. External Remedies

11.2.1. A requestor that is dissatisfied with the information officer's refusal to grant access to any information may, within 180 days of notification of the last decision, apply to court for relief. Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with the information officer's decision to grant a request may, within 180 days of notification of the last decision, apply to court for relief.

11.2.2. It should be noted that notwithstanding any provision in this Act, the court may examine the record(s) in question. No record may be withheld from the court on any grounds. The court may not, however, disclose the contents of the record(s).

11.2.3. The court is empowered to grant any order that is just and equitable, including:

11.2.3.1. confirming, amending, or setting aside the information officer's decision

11.2.3.2. requiring the information officer to take any action, or refrain from taking any action as identified by the court within a specified period;

11.2.3.3. granting an interdict, interim or special relief, declaratory order or compensation; or costs.

12. PRIVACY PRACTICES

12.1. Should a data subject wish to object to the processing of personal information in terms of section 11(3)(a) of the POPI Act, an objection must be submitted to P-uma on Form 1 attached to this policy as Annexure 3.

- 12.7. Planned transborder flows of personal information
- 12.7.1. In order to provide the products and services offered by P-uma it may be required that we transfer your Personal Information to countries outside the borders of South Africa. P-uma will only transfer personal information to third parties outside the borders of South Africa in the following circumstances:
 - 12.7.1.1. where personal information will be adequately protected under the other country's laws or an agreement with the third-party recipient;
 - 12.7.1.2. where the transfer is necessary to enter into, or perform, under a contract or a contract with a third party that is in your interest;
 - 12.7.1.3. where consent for the transfer has been obtained; and/or
 - 12.7.1.4. where it is not reasonably practical to obtain consent, and the transfer is in your interest.
 - 12.7.2. The Personal Information shared will be limited to the information required to fulfil the products and services, and the transfer will happen within the requirements of the law.
 - 12.7.3. P-uma will ensure that the party processing your personal information in the other country will agree to apply the same level of protection as available by law in your country, or if the other country's laws provide better protection, the other country's laws would be agreed to and applied.
- 12.8. Information Security Measures to be implemented by P-uma to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of information
- 12.8.1. P-uma has deployed state of the art technology and implemented security measures to protect against the loss, misuse, or alterations of the Information under our control, by unauthorised third parties. P-uma is committed to providing secure services.
 - 12.8.2. When P-uma contracts with third parties, appropriate security, privacy and confidentiality obligations are imposed on them to ensure that personal information is kept secure.
 - 12.8.3. P-uma regularly tests the effectiveness of the security of our systems and responds to any threats that may be detected.
 - 12.8.4. No data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure, and P-uma does not warrant that your information will be secure but confirm that all reasonable security safeguards will always be in place which includes but is not limited to physical security, password protection, encryption, firewalls and ongoing monitoring.
